

Department of Justice

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
MONDAY, APRIL 2, 2018

OFFICE OF THE
DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL

To NUSA Today:

I am writing this letter to express my concern about your organization's inability to reach out to the Department of Justice for a comment in relation to your article from the other day that highlighted those not in favor of the Department's plea deal with former members of the former criminal organization TPR.

President TimGeithner's administration has made it a priority to keep strong contacts with the American press, and this department follows that belief. The department operates a Twitter account that, alongside the White House, releases government information and Department releases. We take the concept of keeping the American people informed seriously, but that requires the ability to defend our policies and actions when the time comes.

If you run an article related to the Department of Justice, I strongly suggest you contact the official most informed of what you're writing about, whether it be the Attorney General, myself, or the agency Directors. I hope that NUSA Today will continue to work towards keeping the American people informed, and the Department of Justice hopes to help the press present all the relevant facts in the future.

Thank you,
